A SOLID SORE

Knee to Instep. Wild with Pain. CURED BY CUTICURA.

I was afflicted with such a terrible sore leg, it was thought it would have to be amputated. I could hardly stand the pain, and had to get along with a crutch. I tried all kinds of medicines without success, getting worse until it became a solid sore from knee to instep. Almost wild with pain, I gave up in despair. I heard of Curicuma remedies and tried them. The first application of CUTICURA (cintment), and with warm water and CUTICURA SOAP, gave me so much relief that I was able to sleep over half cation of Curreura (cintment), after washing of the night, and in eight weeks I was cured.

Laughing may indicate joy or ridicule, mirth or derision. A good hearty laugh is contagious, indicating a degree of good health obtainable only through perfect purity of the blood. Lewis is one of the best known westlers in the world, and the meeting between the two men has excited a great deal of interst among the local sporting fraternity. Scheller is a Kansas City man, and he feels confident that he will make a good showing against the world-benter, as, according to the articles, he only has to gain one fall in order to win the money. This provision of the match was tendered by Lewis in a communication to the sporting editor of The Journal.

The preliminaries will be unusually attractive and they will be contests of merit, as the contestants will battle for points, and their share of the purses will depend upon their showing. E. SHORTEST LINE.

AMONG THE RAILROADS

CURLINGTON ROUTE PURCHASES NINE OF ITS LEASED LINES.

urchase Made Necessary in Order to Place Mortgage-Solidifies System East of the Missouri River-Other News.

CHICAGO, ILL., May 19.—(Special.) Nine railroads that the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company has been operating under leases were to-day bought outright by that corporation and will be nerged into the system.

Following are the roads whose stock and ranchises were secured by the Burling-on: Illinois Valley & Northern; Galesfranchises were secured by the Burlington: Illinois Valley & Northern; Galesburg & Rio; Chieago & Iowa; Peorla & Hannibal; Ottawa, Oswego & Fox River Valley; Illinois Grand Trunk; American Central; Quincy & Warsaw, and the St. Louis, Rock Island & Chicago.

While these roads have been operated by the Burlington company for years, they have been independent corporations, the Burlington's control being by leases in perpetuity. Recently the directors of the Burlington authorified the placing of an 85,050,000 mortgage on the system, and as these lines formed the system cast of the Missouri river, a mortgage could not be given on them unless they were owned by the Burlington. In order to place these bonds, the outstanding stock, with the franchises of the nine roads, was bought. The security holders voted unanimously to sell to the Burlington, but just what prices were paid for the properties could not be learned.

The purchase of these roads solidifies the Burlington system east of the Missouri river and removes any obstacle that might stand in the way of the management of the company as one corporation.

It is said the owners of the Burlington do not intend to stop with the purchases made to-day, but will pursue the centralizing policy until all the auxiliary lines now operated by them under leases or otherwise are absorbed and made a legal part of the system. Recently the Chicago, Burlington & Northern was taken in in this way and the next line booked for a sale is the Hannibal & St. Joseph.

Export Grain Rates Unchanged.

The Western trunk lines committee, at its meeting in Chicago yesterday, agreed to equalize the export and domestic rates on packing house products. This means an increase in the export rate. An effort was made to arrive at some agreement to equalize the export and domestic rates on grain, but, after a lengthy discussion, the matter was dropped, and will be taken up at a later meeting. The difficulty was the establishment of a differential basis for the various Atlantic and Gulf ports.

O'BRIEN KNOCKED OUT.

Joe Walcott Had the Best of the Fight All the Way Through and Won in the Fourteenth Round.

NEW YORK, May 19.—Joe Walcott, the colored boxer, who has deserted the ranks

NEW YORK, May 19.—Joe Walcott, the colored boxer, who has deserted the ranks of the lightweights to become a middle-weight, knocked out Dick O'Brien in the fourteenth round of their fight at the Broadway Athletic Club to-night. Walcott made a heavy concession of weight to the Lewiston man, yet he won without having to take more than half a dozen punches in return for the scores that he rained upon his man. Walcott took a lead with the sound of the gong and save for a few seconds in the thirteenth, was never headed.

He showed superfority in every respect, and it was only O'Brien's wonderful stamma and capacity to take punishment that saved him from an earlier defeat. Half a dozen times during the fight, and before the final round, he seemed to be going, but every time his strength came back and the rests revived him. It was a flerce fight from the start, yet it was so uneven that it falled to stir the crowd to a very high pitch of enthusiasm. Walcott showed improved form at the increased weight, and was wonderfully clever. He frequently lashed his left into O'Brien's ribs, raised it to the neck, and then planted the right on the other side of the head and got away without a return. His left was wonderfully useful and whenever a blow seemed effective he was all over his man with both hands. He wave O'Brien no rest and after the size-up it was only a question of time. after the size-up it was only a question f time. Walcott was favorite in the betting a of time.

Walcott was favorite in the betting at odds of 2 and 2½ to 1, but there was not much money wagered. The men felt their way through the first round. Both seemed in excellent condition, and O'Brien was probably nearer the weight that he has been in any of his contests of late. The white man found the body once with his left, but it was not a hard punch.

The following rounds were viciously fought, but it was clearly in favor of the Barbadoes coon. O'Brien recovered several times from a seeming knockout, and proved to be a glutton for punishment. The fourth was a case of give and take, and it looked as though it was all off in the fifth, but O'Brien came to life again and made it interesting for Walcott. O'Brien made a sorry showing in the seventh, and in the following rounds fought like a drowning man, but he was practically a licked man.

The thirteenth was the only one that looked at all O'Brien's. Walcott opened with a series of jabs, but toward the close O'Brien planted his right on the jaw and his left on the nose. He followed the colored man about the ring, and had him bleeding and tired at the finish. The end came in the fourteenth, Walcott rushed his man and sent him down with a hard right hander on the jaw. O'Brien took his time and was groggy when he came up. Walcott was at him at once and beat him down with right and left. Then out shot a right hook and it was over.
